JOINT ACCOUNTS: Method of signing

- Either to sign All to sign Other _____

If you open a joint account with another person, you will each be liable for any money that is owing on the accounts. Your liability for debts is both joint and several. When one joint holder dies, the surviving joint holder(s) automatically take the deceased joint holder's interest in the account. 'Either to sign' means that any one of the joint holders can operate the account. 'All to sign' means that all joint holders must sign together to operate the account. You can vary these instructions at any time by contacting us. If fewer than all the account holders can sign on the account, any one of the account holders can notify the Credit Union that the account must be reverted to "all to sign".

JOINT ACCOUNTS: Statements

We will only send one statements to the primary joint member. Joint account holders may request to receive statements at any time. All account holders have access to joint account information via Internet Banking and Mobile Banking app.
