Otherwise, no payments are received by our staff that would influence the advice they provide Members of financial products and services.

Credit Guide

FSCU has an Australian Credit Licence authorising us to provide credit. FSCU provides loans to its members only.

For our loan products we will provide you with documents which explain the product Terms and Conditions, features, and fees and charges for the product.

Under the National Credit Act we are prohibited from providing you with credit under a credit contract if the contract will be unsuitable for you. Similarly, we are prohibited from increasing the limit of an existing credit contract, if the new limit will be unsuitable for you.

A credit contract or credit limit increase is unsuitable for you if at the time the contract is entered into or the limit is increased it is likely that:

- You will be unable to comply with your financial obligations under the contract, or could only comply with substantial hardship at that time, or
- The contract or increase does not meet your requirements and objectives at that time.

Our Obligation to make a Credit Assessment

Before providing you with credit, we must make a preliminary assessment as to whether the contract or increase in limit will be unsuitable for you. In order to make this assessment we must:

- Make reasonable inquiries about your requirements and objectives in relation to the credit contract, and
- Make reasonable inquiries about your financial situation,
- Take reasonable steps to verify your financial situation

Obtaining this information helps us get a reasonable understanding of your need for credit as well as your ability to meet all the repayments, fees, charges and transactions associated with the proposed credit contract. The extent of the inquiries we undertake will depend on the circumstances.

Your right to receive a copy of the Credit Assessment

You have the right to request a copy of our assessment of your suitability. We must give you a copy at no charge within 7 business days if your request is within 2 years of the credit quote or otherwise within 21 business days. You may request a copy of the credit assessment up to seven years after the day on which the credit contract is entered or the credit limit is increased. Note: you are only entitled to receive a copy of your assessment if your loan is approved or credit limit is increased.

Updating this Credit Guide

All details are correct as at the date of this Credit Guide. We will update the Credit Guide if there are any material changes adverse to borrowers.
